

NTO Obligations: Notifications regarding NTOs

Government of South Australia
Department for Education

For assistance in completing this form call Skills Infoline on 1800 673 097

The South Australian Skills Act 2008 (the SAS Act) requires Nominated Training Organisations (NTO) to notify the Commission of certain matters.

This form relates to Standard 6 which outlines details of NTO notification obligations.

NTOs are required to notify the Commission if it may no longer be able to comply with obligations under the Training Plan. This includes if ASQA or TEQSA makes a decision to:

- Suspend or cancel the NTO's registration or recognition; or
- Cancel a qualification or statement of attainment, or
- Reject an application for renewal of recognition or renewal, or
- Amend scope of training associated with your training contracts, or
- Impose a condition on your registration or recognition that impacts your training contracts, or
- Agree to an enforceable undertaking for your NTO.

To make a notification complete and submit this form.

The Department will contact you following notification to discuss options.
