

Standard Entitlement Criteria

(applicable ONLY to Training Accounts created on or before
14 October 2020)

If, at the time of first enrolment after 1 October 2015, a Participant seeks to enrol in a Course and the Participant does not hold a non-school qualification (from a Certificate I level up to and including a doctorate) or is a Jobseeker, the Participant will, in accordance with clause 13 and 14 of the Training Schedule, be entitled to access a subsidised Training place for:

- one Course at the Certificate II level; and
- two Courses at the Certificate III to Advanced Diploma level.

In addition, based on the assessed need of the Participant as determined by the Upfront Assessment of Need process, the participant may be eligible for:

- Foundation Skills Courses;
- up to five Bridging Units within a qualification at every level.

If, at the time of first enrolment after 1 October 2015, a Participant seeks to enrol in a Course and the Participant has a non-school qualification at Certificate II level or lower, the Participant will, in accordance with clause 13 and 14 of the Training Schedule, be entitled to access a subsidised Training place for:

- two Courses at the Certificate III to Advanced Diploma level.

In addition, based on the assessed need of the Participant as determined by the Upfront Assessment of Need process, the participant may be eligible for:

- Foundation Skills Courses;
- up to five Bridging Units within a qualification at every level.

If, at the time of first enrolment after 1 October 2015, a Participant seeks to enrol in a Course and the Participant has a non-school qualification at Certificate III level or above (including a qualification from a university), the Participant will, in accordance with clause 13 and 14 of the Training Schedule, be entitled to access a subsidised Training place for:

- one Course at the Certificate III to Advanced Diploma level.

In addition, based on the assessed need of the Participant as determined by the Upfront Assessment of Need process, the participant may be eligible for:

- Foundation Skills Courses;
- up to five Bridging Units within a qualification at every level.

Limitations on enrolment include:

- a School Enrolled Participant may only be enrolled in one Course at a time;
- a School Enrolled Participant is not eligible for Foundation Skills Course or Bridging Unit funding;
- a Participant may only be enrolled in one Foundation Skills Course at a time;
- a Participant who is enrolled pursuant to clauses 14.6(b) and 15.1 of the Training Schedule and above may only receive funded Training for a maximum of two completed Courses selected from Certificate III to Advanced Diploma level. This limitation does not apply to those Courses with Training Contract conditions.
